

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair has for the last few years pressed their right-wing agenda in clean violation of the FCC. They do so on the public airwaves free of charge....these airwaves are to promote and serve the public interest.

Sinclair pass off their viewpoint as news...This is not the way for a democracy to work well. If Sinclair airs this attack on John Kerry they must also air opposing views.. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
